

Students Under 18 Policy

POLICY FOR UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS UNDER THE AGE OF 18 YEARS

AIMS

It is a condition of registration with New College of the Humanities (the College) that the parent¹ of any student who is under the age of 18 years confirms, by signing and returning the "Consent Form for Students Under 18" (consent form), their acceptance of the arrangements set out in this document; once the student reaches the age of 18 years, these accepted terms will automatically be regarded as agreed to by the student.

This policy applies to UK/EU/EEA/Swiss students only. The College does not accept Tier 4 visa holders who are under the age of 18 years. Tier 4 visa holders must be 18 years or older upon their arrival in the UK.

INTRODUCTION

Occasionally the College admits students who are under the age of 18 years.² In most cases this will be a very temporary situation as normally the student will be turning 18 by 31 December in the year they start their programme. The College does not accept students under the age of 17. The College is an adult environment and treats all its students as independent, mature individuals. Students who are under the age of 18 years will be treated in the same way. The usual personal and academic support arrangements will apply to students who are under 18 years. This normally includes the allocation of a Personal Tutor, as well as a range of specialist student services. However, the College acknowledges that anyone under the age of 18 living in England is legally a child and that some legal restrictions apply to that student, e.g. prohibition on the consumption of alcohol on licensed premises and the sale/supply of videos with a British Board of Film Classification of 18 years of age.

PARENTAL RESPONSIBILITIES

The College is not able to take on the usual rights, responsibilities and authority that parents have in relation to a child, and it will not act in loco parentis in relation to students who are under the age of 18 years.

CONTRACTS

A person of 17 has the status to enter into necessary contracts for education and accommodation but until their 18th birthday will not be legally competent to enter into all legal contracts, e.g. for tuition fees. In circumstances where a person must be aged 18 or over to be legally competent to enter into a contract, the College requires a student's parent to act as a Guarantor and to honour all obligations (under any contracts with the College) that the student enters into prior to their 18th birthday. By signing the consent form, the parent agrees to this. Failure to pay debts due to the College could result in studies being suspended.

STUDENT ACCOMMODATION

Parents should recognise that residential accommodation recommended by the College is generally intended for the use of adults and that accommodation options for students under 18 years are limited.

FIELD TRIPS

Programmes may involve compulsory or optional field trips, excursions or other periods of study away from the College. Subject to the College's duties under health & safety law, the College is not able to take any additional responsibility for a student who is under the age of 18 years in relation to such activities. Unless indicated otherwise, by signing the consent form the parent gives consent for the student to take part in these activities on that basis.

ALCOHOL

It is illegal for alcohol to be sold to or bought by individuals who are under the age of 18 years. The College will take reasonable steps to seek to ensure that the law is not broken in relation to licensed premises under the College's control but cannot undertake to supervise any individual student. The Student Union is responsible for ensuring that appropriate arrangements are in place for student-run events.

HOLDING OFFICE

Students who are under 18 years are encouraged to join Student Union clubs and societies but are not able to hold office until after their 18th birthday (this is because Officers carry legal responsibilities). Their participation in certain activities may be limited.

RELATIONSHIPS WITH STAFF

Under the Sexual Offences (Amendment) Act 2000, it is a criminal offence for any person in a position of trust (which may include members of College staff) to engage in sexual activity with someone who is under 18 years.

CHILD PROTECTION

As a matter of law in England, a person under the age of 18 is a child. The College has a responsibility to protect those under the age of 18 years from abuse and is obliged to report any suspicions or allegations of abuse of children to the appropriate Social Services officer. Any such suspicions or allegations will be reported to the Safeguarding Officer who will contact the appropriate authorities.

NOTIFICATION

The Safeguarding Officer will be notified, prior to registration, of any student who will be under the age of 18 years on entry to the College. Personal Tutors will also be notified. Other relevant staff will be informed of a student's age in order to allow the College to enforce the rules as laid out in the Safeguarding Policy.

PARENTAL INVOLVEMENT

It is the College's usual policy that it deals with students (with whom it has a contractual relationship) and not with parents. Although those under 18 are regarded as children under UK law, they still have the legal right under the General Data Protection Regulations (2018) for information about them not to be disclosed without their explicit consent.

This means that the College is not able to give information to parents regarding the student's progress, results or any other personal circumstances unless the student has given specific consent. This approach will also apply to students who are under the age of 18 years. The College will therefore correspond with students, not parents.

EMERGENCY CONTACT

Students who have not attained the age of 18 can have their refusal to receive medical treatment overridden by parents and hence, emergency contact details must be provided by students or parents prior to the student's arrival at the College. Students under 18 will not be allowed to register unless this information is provided. Students must immediately inform the Student and Academic Services team if there are changes to any of the contact details provided.
