Award and Programme Title	BA (Hons) History with Psychology	UCAS Code	V1C8
Programme Level	Level 6	HECoS Code	100302 100497
Relevant QAA Benchmark Statements	History	Programme Code	NCHHPSBF
Awarding Body	NCH at Northeastern Limited	Language of Instruction	English
Teaching Institution	New College of the Humanities	Date Approved	June 2020
Mode of Study	Full-time	Duration of Study	3 years

PROGRAMME STRUCTURE

The programme is studied over three years and there are three terms each year: Michaelmas (autumn), Hilary (spring) and Trinity (summer). Michaelmas and Hilary are twelve weeks long and Trinity term is eight weeks long.

Michaelmas and Hilary each consists of twelve weeks of intensive study for the degree programme. They incorporate a Reading Week, generally taken in the seventh week of each term, where there are no formal teaching sessions. In the twelfth week of each term Collections are held, these being individual meetings between the student and their tutors to review the student's performance over the term.

Trinity consists of revision, informally and through formal sessions, followed by examinations.

The History major is focused on the 1-1 or 2-1 one-hour tutorial. For each tutorial students will prepare a formative essay of about 2000 words or other presentation which they will then discuss with their lecturer and receive oral and written feedback on. The tutorial system enables students to find their own way through the course, exploring topics of particular interest while receiving extensive support from an experienced member of the faculty. The essays allow students to develop skills in research, analysis and communication. In support of the tutorials, students also attend lectures and seminars through which they will gain background understanding of the subjects they are studying in preparation for the tutorials.

In the Psychology minor, students gain an insight into the study of the human mind and behaviour. It explores fundamental principles, concepts, and issues in the major areas of contemporary scientific Psychology. Students will learn the biological, cognitive, and psychosocial factors underlying behaviours, including emotions, learning and motivation; personality dynamics; life-span development; memory, the brain, communication and social behaviours and mental illness. Students will also be able to see how Psychology is applied to explain individual differences in behaviours, attitudes and feelings in everyday life. Studying Psychology allows students to develop excellent research and analytical skills, the ability to communicate complex information and gain a thorough understanding of human behaviour and thought processes.

STRUCTURE OF THE HISTORY MAJOR (270 CREDITS)

FIRST YEAR (LEVEL 4)

Compulsory Courses:

NCHHI412 Sixteenth-Century England (30 credits)

NCHHI406 Britain and the Wider World (30 credits) (2020 entry only)

Third Year: NCHPS678 Clinical Psychology (15 credits) AND

NCHPS679 Cognitive Psychology (15 credits)

ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS

AGE

An applicant must normally be at least 17 years of age at the time of registration, and keeping in line with the College's policy, normally turn 18 before 31 December of that academic year.

GENERAL ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS

The College reviews application forms, grades, personal statements, references, and interview performance, before making offers of places in its programmes. A typical offer for undergraduate study is AAB at A-level, 35 points or 6,6,5 in HL subjects in the IB Diploma, or the equivalent. Provisional admissions decisions are made by the Admissions Tutor of the Faculty of the major subject for which the student has applied.

SPECIFIC ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS

History Major: None

Psychology Minor: None

RECOGNITION OF PRIOR LEARNING

Where a student wishes to apply for the recognition of prior learning on the basis of certificated or experiential learning, they should follow the College's Recognition of Prior Learning and Credit Transfer Policy.

AIMS OF THE PROGRAMME

The aims of the major (History) part of the programme are to:

- Enable students to acquire knowledge and understanding of the human past, and the ways in which humans have organised their lives materially and conceptually as individuals and societies.
- Equip students to conduct research in history and to communicate their findings effectively to diverse audiences.

The aim of the minor (Psychology) part of the programme is to:

- Develop a scientific understanding of the mind, brain, behaviour and experience and how they interact with complex environmental and social factors.
- Differentiate and apply major sub-disciplines or specialties in Psychology, including social and developmental, experimental, biological, cognitive and clinical psychology.
- Use scientific reasoning to interpret psychological phenomena, critically evaluate psychological research methods and analyse empirical evidence.

The overall aim of the programme is to:

- Provide a teaching and learning environment which achieves the above aims by enabling students to demonstrate the learning outcomes below.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

[History (HI); Psychology (PS)]

KNOWLEDGE AND UNDERSTANDING

The student will be able to:

- K1c (HI) command a substantial and varied body of historical knowledge and understanding
- K2c (HI) appreciate the complexity of reconstructing the past, and the problematic and varied nature of historical evidence
- K3c (HI) reflect critically on the nature of their discipline, its social rationale, its theoretical underpinnings and its intellectual standing
- K4c (PS) demonstrate coherent and detailed scientific knowledge in Psychology to understand behaviour, emotion, and mental processes

SUBJECT-SPECIFIC SKILLS

The student will be able to:

- S1c (HI) develop and sustain historical arguments in oral and written form, formulating pertinent and probing questions, and answering those questions using evidence with nuance and insight
- S2c (HI) read, analyse and reflect critically and contextually upon contemporary and secondary texts and other non-textual sources
- S3c (HI) find, gather and deploy evidence and data with intellectual integrity and maturity
- S4c (PS) use scientific reasoning to interpret psychological phenomena and critically evaluate psychological research

TRANSFERABLE SKILLS

The student will be able to:

- T1c (HI) produce written work to high standards in organization, relevance, fluency of expression and referencing, including in the design, research and presentation of an independently conceived piece of writing
- T2c (HI) organise and synthesize large amounts of information and analyse the ideas in such data in rational, critical and evaluative ways
- T4c (PS) apply psychological concepts to everyday life and gain creativity and team working skills

All of the above learning outcomes are mapped to the relevant QAA Subject Benchmark threshold statements - see Appendix A. For the learning outcomes of exit awards, see Appendix B.

TEACHING AND LEARNING

The faculty make use of various teaching and learning strategies to provoke interest, knowledge and skills in the courses being delivered.

The delivery methods are:

- Tutorials (based on essays submitted by the student, with written and/or oral feedback on their progress)
- Seminars for small group discussion
- Lectures
- Consolidation and revision sessions
- Informal group discussion (including online discussion)
- Examinations and examiners' reports
- Independent study and research

The style of teaching at the College exposes students to lectures that capture their interest and excite their curiosity. These lectures are designed to allow interactivity and a short time of discussion and questioning (throughout or at the end of each lecture, as appropriate).

Tutorials and seminar sessions enable unparalleled focus on the individual student, prompt and encourage independent reading and research, and facilitate lively, structured discussion. Students receive detailed feedback, written and/or verbal, on their formative assessments, and ideas and arguments are approached from new angles and in new contexts to enable the consolidation and review of material.

The programme is designed to progress steadily over three years and develop students' conceptual sophistication through cumulative experience and knowledge. The third-year dissertation course will allow students to develop their thinking in collaboration with a supervisor.

RESOURCES

The students experience and study is supported by the College's Virtual Learning Environment (VLE), where students can preview and download course descriptors, lecture handouts, reading lists, and supplementary materials. Students also have access to Senate House Library and online research resources, such as JStor and Northeastern University's Online Library.

Sample and/or past examination papers, as well as internal examiners' reports, are available to help students understand what is expected of them.

RESEARCH

Faculty aim to provide a lively, open, and interactive teaching environment, in which research and teaching are complementary. Faculty appreciate the breadth of knowledge that students must achieve, where the syllabus allows for it, teaching is allocated in line with research interests and expertise and faculty facilitate a wide range of academic and social events in which students and faculty are brought together.

Students are taught research and digital literacy skills in two main ways:

- a) At the beginning of Michaelmas of the first year, History subject librarians at Senate House Library give the students inductions on the use of the Senate House Library catalogue, other library catalogues, and other electronic resources relevant to the programme.

- b) Part way through the first half of Michaelmas (once students have had some experience of writing essays, and have acquired the appetite to improve their research skills), first-year students receive, in College, both College-wide and subject-specific briefings on basic digital literacy and research skills. These briefings are given as lectures, and are reinforced by summary documentation made available on the VLE.

Details of how this might be done appear in 'Teaching and Learning' sections of the Course Descriptor for Britain and the Wider World (2020 entry) World History (2021 entry onwards). In addition, research skills particular to the writing of dissertations are taught in the lectures and tutorials for the course Dissertation.

ASSESSMENT

Assessment in History aims to examine:

- the ability to evaluate evidence and reflect critically, empathically and contextually on it
- knowledge and understanding of the complexity and diversity of situations, events and mentalities in the past
- the ability to marshal, develop and sustain a rigorous, robust, well-structured and concise historical argument, on the basis of this evidence
- the ability to express oneself fluently, clearly and coherently in prose
- an awareness of the different methodological approaches to History
- knowledge and understanding of central historical questions, texts, and debates
- the ability to reason rigorously, critically, creatively and autonomously
- the ability to express oneself clearly and precisely

Assessment in Psychology aims to examine:

- knowledge and understanding of psychological concepts
- ability to explain, predict, and influence behaviour, emotion, and mental processes
- ability to understand and apply scientific terminology and research principles in Psychology

Courses are assessed in a variety of ways, including:

FORMATIVE:

- Tutorial essays
- Oral presentations

SUMMATIVE:

- Written examinations
- Written assignment
- Dissertation
- Presentations
- Scientific report writing

Appendix C contains the programme structure and assessment summary.

ASSESSMENT REGULATIONS

The College's Assessment Regulations for Taught Awards can be found here.

STUDENT SUPPORT

DISABILITIES AND/OR SPECIFIC LEARNING DIFFICULTIES (SPLDS)

Students are asked to complete a Student Disclosure Form, where they can list any medical conditions, disabilities and/or SpLDs and give consent to who can have access to this information. Students are asked to submit supporting documentation from a doctor, clinical or educational psychologist detailing the nature of their disability and the impact it is likely to have on their studies. More information can be found here. This data is managed and securely stored by Student Support and Development (SSD). During Freshers' Week, a number of talks and events are held which are designed to support and inform students with regard to mental health, disabilities, safety and learning support.

SSD meet with students as soon as possible, and preferably before the start of the academic year, to discuss their needs and help set up support systems both within the College (if appropriate) and externally. If requested by the student, the SDD will then arrange to inform relevant faculty of the student's needs and any reasonable adjustments required.

If a student is undiagnosed but believes they may have a SpLDS (e.g. Dyslexia) the SDD will help them to access diagnostic services. If the assessment confirms a SpLDS, the SDD will discuss further support options with the student and their tutors. The SSD is in contact with local dyslexia tutors for advice or student referral. The College can help provide students with special learning equipment (e.g. coloured paper, reading pens, dictation software, etc.).

For more information, please click here.

EMPLOYABILITY SKILLS

- The skills to critically analyse data.
- The skills to manage and synthesise diverse kinds of information in answer to a given question.
- The skills to communicate clearly within set limits.
- Operate with a substantial degree of independence to design and deliver a sophisticated and novel investigation.

CAREERS EDUCATION, INFORMATION AND GUIDANCE

College Careers Advisers help students to identify their career goals and create individual career plans. Students are actively encouraged to seek internships, with guidance given throughout the application process.

The College runs LAUNCH, which represents part of the NCH Diploma and has been designed in collaboration with a large number of experts from different types of industries. This has been designed to develop the attitudes, behaviours and capabilities that will prepare students for the world of work. It consists of two substantial projects, where students are required to work in teams to address real world assignments, and weekly seminars covering working in teams, marketing, writing and presenting, working in teams, and other transferable skills applicable to any professional activity.

QUALITY EVALUATION AND ENHANCEMENT

AWARD STANDARDS

Every programme of study is developed by the Faculties, utilising their subject specialists and approved by the College's Academic Board.

REVIEW AND EVALUATION MECHANISMS

The College has robust procedures, as described in AQF4 Programme and Course Approval and Modifications and AQF5 Annual Monitoring and Reporting, in place to assure the quality of the programme development, delivery, and management, alongside systematic monitoring, ongoing review and enhancement of all College programmes. Enhancements are made as necessary to ensure that systems remain effective and rigorous.

The College utilises constructive feedback from a variety of sources, internal and external, to inform its decision-making process to enhance the programme and the student experience.

These feedback sources are:

- Annual Course Reviews, written by the Course Leader, are prepared to enable the Course Leader to reflect on the course, using a variety of data and student/faculty feedback to enhance the course and support the Head of Faculty in writing the Annual Faculty Review.
- Annual Faculty Reviews, written by the Head of Faculty, are prepared in order to enhance individual programmes and to plan ahead.
- Annual External Examiner Reports are prepared by independent External Examiners, as appointed by the College, to confirm that a programme has been assessed in accordance with the approved documentation and that the student performance meets the appropriate academic standards.
- Formal student feedback mechanisms consist of course questionnaires on a termly basis, termly Student-Staff Liaison Committee and annual student satisfaction surveys, including external independent survey, such the National Student Survey.
- Informal student feedback is also valued by the College and this can take the form of students talking to their tutors, Head of Faculty or professional staff. Students may also raise matters with their Personal Tutor.

DISCLAIMER

The College has checked the information provided in this Programme Specification and will aim to deliver this programme in keeping with this Programme Specification. However, changes to the programme may sometimes be required arising from annual monitoring, student feedback, and the review and update of courses and programmes. Where this activity leads to significant changes to courses and programmes there will be prior consultation with students and others, wherever possible, and the College will take all reasonable steps to minimise disruption to students. It is also possible that the College may not be able to offer a course or programme for reasons outside of its control, for example, due to the absence of a member of staff or low student registration numbers. Where this is the case, the College will aim to inform applicants and students as soon as possible, and where appropriate, will facilitate the transfer of affected students to another suitable programme.

APPENDIX A – MAP TO QAA SUBJECT BENCHMARK HISTORY

	Recommendation*	Learning Outcomes
9.1	The benchmarking group for history recommended that all students studying history as part of their degree:
	Undertake a programme which fosters the skills and qualities of mind listed in paragraphs 3.1 to 3.3 of this subject benchmark statement.	K1-3, S1-S3, T1-2
	Be provided with opportunities to participate regularly in a variety of structured settings with tutors and other students.	S1-2, T2
9.2	The benchmarking group for history recommended that all single history honours students:
	Follow a programme which gives them practical experience of the intellectual benefits occurring from studying the subject over an extended period of historical time.	K1-3
	Study the history of more than one society or culture.	K1-3
	Carry out intensive critical work on source materials generated by the period under study.	S2-S3
	Be expected to reflect critically on the nature of their discipline.	K3, S3
	Be introduced to some of the many varieties of history.	K1, K2, K3
	Engage in seminars and forms of group work.	S1
	Undertake a wide range of assignments.	T1-T2
	Be assessed in a significant part on their essay-writing skills.	S1-S3, T1-T2
	Be assessed on their understanding of and ability to handle contemporary source material.	S2, S3
	Be assessed on their ability to address historical problems in depth.	K2, S3, T2
9.3	The benchmarking group for history recommended that all departments should give serious consideration to requiring that all single history honours students will:
	Formulate, execute and complete an independent extended piece of written work, with appropriate supervision on which they are assessed.	T1
9.4	Departments will also wish to consider the desirability of providing the opportunity for all single honours students to be assessed on:
	Varying types of and extended writing.	T1
	Oral communication.	S1

APPENDIX B –EXIT AWARDS

CERTIFICATE IN HIGHER EDUCATION:

In order for a student to be awarded a Certificate in Higher Education (Cert HE), they are required to have achieved 120 Level 4 Credits, in accordance with the College's Academic Regulations for Taught Awards.

LEARNING OUTCOMES FOR AWARD OF CERTIFICATE IN HIGHER EDUCATION:

Knowledge and Understanding

A student will be able to:

- K1a (HI) explain specified areas of history
- K2a (HI) appreciate the complexity of reconstructing the past
- K3a (HI) understand the nature of their discipline
- K4a (PS) show awareness and basic understanding of psychological phenomena that explain behaviours

Subject-specific Skills

A student will be able to:

- S1a (Hi) develop historical arguments in oral and written form
- S2a (HI) read and reflect contextually upon contemporary and secondary texts and other non-textual primary sources
- S3a (HI) evaluate evidence and data
- S4a (PS) with guidance, understand the study of psychology and the approaches to explain behaviour

Transferable Skills

A student will be able to:

- T1a (HI) produce written work that demonstrates acceptable standards of organization, relevance, expression and referencing
- T2a (HI) organise and synthesise a limited amount of information
- T4a (PS) understand psychological concepts in everyday life

DIPLOMA IN HIGHER EDUCATION:

In order for a student to be awarded a Diploma in Higher Education (Dip HE), they are required to have achieved 120 Level 4 Credits and 120 Level 5 Credits, in accordance with the College's Academic Regulations for Taught Awards.

LEARNING OUTCOMES FOR AWARD OF DIPLOMA IN HIGHER EDUCATION:

Knowledge and Understanding

A student will be able to:

- K1b (HI) command a varied body of historical knowledge and understanding
- K2b (HI) appreciate the complexity of reconstructing the past, and the problematic and varied nature of historical evidence

- K3b (HI) understand the nature of their discipline, its social rationale, its theoretical underpinnings and its intellectual standing
- K4b (PS) show engaged awareness and understanding of psychological phenomena that explain behaviours

Subject-specific Skills

A student will be able to:

- S1b (HI) develop and sustain historical arguments in oral and written form
- S2b (HI) read, analyse and reflect contextually upon contemporary and secondary texts and other non-textual primary sources
- S3b (HI) find, gather and deploy evidence and data with intellectual integrity
- S4b (PS) understand the study of psychology and interpret main implications of psychology research

Transferable Skills

A student will be able to:

- T1b (HI) produce written work to high standards of organisation, relevance, clarity of expression and referencing
- T2b (HI) organise and synthesise large amounts of information and analyse the ideas in such data in rational and evaluative ways
- T4b (PS) apply psychological concepts to everyday life
