The role

The New College of Humanities at Northeastern wishes to appoint an Assistant Professor (Teaching & Scholarship) in Applied Mathematics.

We wish to appoint specialists in any area of Statistics or Calculus. The appointee will be flexible, able, and willing to be wide-ranging in their teaching and in their professional development. Preference may be given to candidates with active interests in the relationship of Applied Mathematics to one or more of the following areas: software and/or technology; employment contexts; diversity and inclusion.

Core duties will include teaching mathematics, including statistics and calculus, as applied to a variety of fields, as well as wider educational and administrative duties. The appointee will be flexible, able, and willing to be wide-ranging in their teaching and in their professional development. The appointee will be expected to contribute to the establishment and development of Applied Mathematics as an academic field within the institution, and to do so in interdisciplinary collaboration with other academic fields. Appointees will be expected to exercise an appropriate degree of leadership in developing the role of Applied Mathematics in the intellectual life and curriculums of the institution as a whole.

We particularly encourage applications from those with an interest in innovative teaching, learning and assessment; those with experience of supporting a wide variety of students; and those belonging to groups underrepresented in UK higher education. We are open to appointing on a reduced fraction/job-share basis subject to our business needs.

About the College

Founded in 2012, with the aim of providing the highest quality of education in the humanities and social sciences, New College of the Humanities at Northeastern has established itself as a prestigious higher education institution based in the heart of London. We offer a unique and broad liberal arts-inspired curriculum with highly personalised teaching, including our gold-standard tutorial system. The College is undergoing an exciting period of growth, having become part of Northeastern University's global network in early 2019.

Enquiries

Informal enquiries may be made to Dr Marianna Koli, Head of Faculty of Economics (marianna.koli@nchlondon.ac.uk). However, all applications must be made in accordance with the application process specified.

Application Process

Applications should be made via this link by 20.00, 28 July 2021. Please reference your application "AM0721". Due to the business need to appoint at the earliest opportunity, the College may review applications prior to the deadline and make an appointment. For this reason, early application is encouraged.

Please ensure that your application takes the form of the required dossier found here either by using the form or by providing the material requested for the dossier in a cover letter and CV. You can consult our academic job description here

Participation in the equal opportunities section is encouraged, but voluntary.

Applications are welcome from all sections of the community and will be judged on merit alone. Candidates must be able to demonstrate their eligibility to work in the UK in accordance with the Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act 2006. We are not able to provide Sponsorship for this role.
