The role

The New College of Humanities at Northeastern wishes to appoint a part-time Lecturer (Teaching) in Law.

We wish to appoint specialists who are able to teach on Criminal Law. Preference may be given to candidates with active interests in the relationship of Criminal Law to one or more of the following areas: software and/or technology; employment contexts; diversity and inclusion.

Core duties will include preparation of classes, teaching (including tutorials), and office hours for the course Criminal Law, as well as education support work as required by the College.

We particularly encourage applications from those with an interest in innovative teaching, learning and assessment; those with experience of supporting a wide variety of students; and those belonging to groups underrepresented in UK higher education. We are open to appointing on a reduced fraction/job-share basis subject to our business needs.

About the College

Founded in 2012, with the aim of providing the highest quality of education in the humanities and social sciences, New College of the Humanities at Northeastern has established itself as a prestigious higher education institution based in the heart of London. We offer a unique and broad liberal arts-inspired curriculum with highly personalised teaching, which may include tutorials. The College is undergoing an exciting period of growth, having become part of Northeastern University's global network in early 2019.

Additional Information

Enquiries

Informal enquiries may be made to Dr Alice Schneider, Head of Faculty of Law (alice.schneider@nchlondon.ac.uk). However, all applications must be made in accordance with the application process specified.

Application Process

Applications should be made via this link by 20.00, 2 August 2021. Please reference your application "CRL0721". Due to the business need to appoint at the earliest opportunity, the College may review applications prior to the deadline and make an appointment. For this reason, early application is encouraged.

Please ensure that your application takes the form of the required dossier found here, either by using the form or by providing the material requested for the dossier in a covering letter and CV. You can consult our academic job description here

Participation in the equal opportunities section is encouraged, but voluntary.

Applications are welcome from all sections of the community and will be judged on merit alone. We welcome applications from underrepresented groups. Candidates must be able to demonstrate their eligibility to work in the UK in accordance with the Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act 2006. We are not able to provide Sponsorship for this role.
