The role

The New College of Humanities at Northeastern wishes to appoint one or more Lecturers in Macroeconomics. The appointee(s) will teach Macroeconomics to Level 4 undergraduate students, and one appointee will also act as Course Leader.

We wish to appoint specialists in Macroeconomics. Preference may be given to candidates with active interests in the relationship of Macroeconomics to one or more of the following areas: software and/or technology; employment contexts; diversity and inclusion.

Core duties will include: Delivering 3 teaching hours per week to each of 1-3 groups (depending on contract) for 14 weeks, the design and marking of assessments, and course leadership.

We particularly encourage applications from those with an interest in innovative teaching, learning and assessment; those with experience of supporting a wide variety of students; and those belonging to groups underrepresented in UK higher education. We are open to appointing on a reduced fraction/job-share basis subject to our business needs.

About the College

Founded in 2012, with the aim of providing the highest quality of education in the humanities and social sciences, New College of the Humanities at Northeastern has established itself as a prestigious higher education institution based in the heart of London. We offer a unique and broad liberal arts-inspired curriculum with highly personalised teaching, which may include tutorials. The College is undergoing an exciting period of growth, having become part of Northeastern University's global network in early 2019.

Additional Information

Enquiries

Informal enquiries may be made to Dr Marianna Koli (marianna.koli@nchlondon.ac.uk). However, all applications must be made in accordance with the application process specified.

Application Process

Applications should be made via this link by 20:00 on 22 November 2021. Please reference your application "ECOAC1121". Due to the business need to appoint at the earliest opportunity, the College may review applications prior to the deadline and make an appointment. For this reason, early application is encouraged.

Please ensure that your application includes a CV and dossier (alternatively, an equivalent cover letter) that sets out concisely and in ways relevant to this role: (a) your achievements and challenges in the last 12-months, and in your career to-date, in education; (b) what your priorities would be in performing the advertised role; (c) what your objectives are for your future career; (d) a statement of your approach to education. You may use bullet points if you wish. You can consult our academic job description here.

Participation in the equal opportunities section is encouraged, but voluntary. Applications are welcome from all sections of the community and will be judged on merit alone. We welcome applications from underrepresented groups. Candidates must be able to demonstrate their eligibility to work in the UK in accordance with the Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act 2006. We are not able to provide Tier 2/Skilled Worker Sponsorship for this role.
