|---------------------------------|---|---|--|
| 8:00 | Registration/Coffee | | |
| 8.45 | Opening Remarks (Ball//Rossi) | | |
| 9:00 | Keynote Talk: Wittgenstein and Assertion A.C. Grayling (NCH) | | |
| 10:15 | Coffee | | |
| 10:30 | Symposium: Digital Humanities and Wittgenstein Chair: Naomi Goulder (NCH) | | |
| 10:30 | Wittgenstein: Philological and Semantic Alois Pichler (Bergen) | | |
| 11:10 | Distributional Semantics and Computational Methods for Tracing Words' Meaning Across Time Barbara McGillivray (King's College London) | | |
| 11:50 | Computational Philosophy: Reflections on the PolyGraphs Project Brian Ball (NCH) | | |
| 12:30 | Lunch | | |
| 14:00 | Symposium: Wittgensteinian AI Governance Chair: Alice Schneider (NCH) | Parallel Session 1: | Parallel Session 2: |
| 14:00 | The Theory of Artificial Immutability: Protecting Algorithmic Groups under Anti-Discrimination Law Sandra Wachter (Oxford) | Wittgenstein and the Formalization of Complexity Serena Dell'Unto (Gregorian University) | An Anthropology of Human-Computer Interaction in the Age of AI Richard Harper (Lancaster) |
| 14:40 | Burkhard Schafer (Edinburgh); Title Tbc | Towards a Wittgensteinian Cognitivism David Lindeman (Georgetown) | AI and the Cluster Account of Art Alice Helliwell (NCH) |
| 15:20 | Tbc | Meaning as Use and Distributional Semantics Jumbly Grindrod (Reading) | "The Forms of Artificially Intelligent Life": Brandom, Chomsky and Wittgenstein on the Possibility of Strong-AI Laith Abdel (Independent Researcher) |
| 16:00 | Coffee | | |
| 16:15 | Symposium: Wittgenstein, Logic and Computation Chair: Alessandro Rossi (NCH) | Parallel Session 3: | Parallel Session 4: |
| 16:15 | The Later Wittgenstein on Idealization and Abstraction in Logic Oskari Kuusela (East Anglia) | The Metonymical Trap Éloïse Boisseau (Aix-Marseille) | Can XAI be 'Warfare against Our Own Confusions'? Using Wittgenstein to Fulfill the Principle of Explainability Zachary Goldberg (Trilateral) |
| 16:55 | Artificial Argumentation: From Logic to Language and Back Serena Villata (Nice) | Can Machines Act Ethically? Luca Alberto Rappuoli (St Andrews) | Investigating Deepfakes: A Wittgensteinian Look on AI Regulation Mehmet Taylan Cüyaz (Middle East Technical University) |
| 17:35 | Modelling Analogical Reasoning: One-Size-Fits-All? Ioannis Votsis (NCH) | Autonomy: A Family Resemblance Concept; Evidence from Robotics Emily Collins (Northeastern) | The Civic Status of Artificial Intelligence Emanuele Bottazzi (LOA, IST-CNR) |

| Saturday 30 th of July | |
|-----------------------------------|---|
| 8:00 | Registration/Coffee |
| 9:00 | Keynote Talk: Wittgenstein, Turing, and AI Juliet Floyd (Boston) |
| 10:15 | Coffee |
| 10:30 | Symposium: Wittgenstein and Turing Chair: Brian Ball (NCH) |
| 10:30 | Wittgenstein and Turing on AI: Myth Versus Reality Diane Proudfoot (Canterbury, NZ) |
| 11:10 | Alan Turing – Accidental Codebreaker? David Kenyon (Bletchley Park) |
| 11:50 | Wittgenstein and Turing’s Discussion of Contradiction and Inconsistency Ásgeir Berg Matthíasson (Iceland) |
| 12:30 | Lunch |
| 14:00 | Symposium: Wittgenstein, AI, and Education Chair: Riyukta Raghunath (NCH) |
| 14:00 | Management, Automation, and the Consequences of Denial Paul Standish (UCL IOE) |
| 14:40 | What Happens (and Doesn’t Happen) When AI Teaches Grownups? Chiara Alfano (NCH) |
| 15:20 | Artificial Intelligence: Lived Experience Mark Martin (NCH) |
| 14:00 | Parallel Session 5: Turing’s Philosophy of AI Sebastian Sunday-Grève (Peking) |
| 14:40 | Wittgenstein’s Influence on Turing Test Teresa Numerico (Roma Tre) |
| 15:20 | The Turing Machine as a Boundary Object: Sorting Out American Science and European Engineering Edgar Daylight (Siegen/Lille) |
| 14:00 | Parallel Session 6: Meaning As Use, Rule-Bending, and AI Safety José Antonio Pérez Escobar (École Normale Supérieure) |
| 14:40 | Wittgenstein, Meaning, and the Chinese Room: Intentionality as a Linguistic Phenomenon David Chandler (King’s College London) |
| 16:00 | Coffee |
| 16:15 | Symposium: Online Language Games Chair: Richard Paul (NCH) |
| 16:15 | Automated Misinformation Detection Using Natural Language Processing Elena Kochina (QMUL/Turing Institute) |
| 16:55 | Authenticity and Trust Online Elmar Unnsteinsson (UCD) |
| 17:35 | Wittgenstein, Distributional Semantics and Large Language Models Fintan Mallory (Oslo) |
| 18:15 | End of Day |
| 19:15 | Conference Dinner at the Dickens Inn |

| Sunday 31 st of July | | | |
|---------------------------------|--|---|--|
| 8:00 | Registration/Coffee | | |
| 9:00 | Keynote Talk: Ethics in AI: A Challenging Task Ricardo Baeza-Yates (Institute for Experiential AI at Northeastern) | | |
| 10:15 | Coffee | | |
| 10:30 | Symposium: | Parallel Session 7: | Parallel Session 8: |
| | Colour and AI Chair: Alice Helliwell (NCH) | | |
| 10:30 | From 'Meaning is Use' to Unsupervised Grounding of Color Terms Anders Søgaard (Copenhagen) | Wittgenstein, AI, Science and Technology Roberto Presilla, Filippo Durisotto (Gregorian University) | Kripke on Wittgenstein about Intention and Correctness: A Sceptical Paradox for Computation Chiara Manganini (Milan) |
| 11:10 | Cultural Differences in the Cognitive Aspects of Colour Geometry Dimitris Mylonas (NCH), Maria Federica Norelli (NCH), Jules Davidoff (Goldsmith University of London) | Wittgenstein's Woodsellers and Apparently Irrational AI Mark Theunissen (Delft Technical Universtity) | Law, Rules, Machines Gianmarco Gori (Brussels) |
| 11:50 | Tbc | Can Machines Learn to Follow Rules? A Teleosemantic Approach Jean-Charles Pelland (Bergen) | |
| 12:30 | Lunch | | |
| 14:00 | Colour Hackathon | Parallel Session 9: | Parallel Session 10: |
| 14:00 | | Black Boxes, Beetles and Beasts Ian Ground (Newcastle) | Can Machines Think? A Wittgensteinian Approach to the Fundamental Problem of the Philosophy of AI Arturo Vázquez (Southampton) |
| 14:40 | | The Beetle in the Black Box. A Wittgensteinian Guide to Machine Learning Giovanni Galli (Urbino) | Could a Machine Think? Wittgensteinian Perspectives on Computing Machinery and Intelligence Samuel Pedziwiatr (LMU Munich) |
| 15:20 | | Is 'Accuracy' Accuracy? Chad Lee-Stronach (Northeastern) | Between Wittgenstein and Turing: Enactive Embodied Thinking Machines Tomi Kokkonen, Ilmari Hirvonen (Helsinki) |
| 16:00 | Coffee | | |
| 16:15 | Keynote Talk: Wittgensteinian Considerations of the Moral Status of Social Robots Paula Sweeney (Aberdeen) | | |
| 17:30 | Closing Remarks (Moyal-Sharrock//Goulder)/End | | |
