

Assistant Professor (Teaching & Research) in International Business

POSITION OVERVIEW

Department	Economics
Location	London, Devon House (St Katharine's Dock)
Term	Permanent; Full-time
Hours	Monday to Friday (38 hours per week)
Salary	£38,000-£41,000 per annum
Benefits	Generous benefits package including 25 days holiday allowance pro rata (excl. Bank holidays), group life assurance, group income protection, pension schemes and private healthcare (optional)
Start	January 2023

The role

The New College of Humanities at Northeastern wishes to appoint an Assistant Professor in International Business. The appointee will lead the teaching of International Business at the College and be responsible for developing the College's provision in the area of Business.

We wish to appoint a specialist in International Business. Preference may be given to candidates with active interests in the relationship of International Business to one or more of the following areas: software and/or technology; employment contexts; diversity and inclusion. An interest in the ethics of business will be an asset.

Core duties will include leading a team of Business instructors in delivering teaching to undergraduate students from across the Northeastern Global Network, and in due course, building the College's provision in the area of Business.

We particularly encourage applications from those with an interest in innovative teaching, learning and assessment; those with experience of supporting a wide variety of students; and those belonging to groups underrepresented in UK higher education. We are open to appointing on a reduced fraction/job-share basis subject to our business needs.

Department

In the first instance, the appointee will work in a multidisciplinary team under the Dean for Education in Business and Economics. In a typical academic year, the team includes approximately 15 academic staff, including instructors in Economics, Business, Marketing, Mathematics, and Finance. The quality of teaching in the Faculty is high, as evidenced, for example, through scores in the National Student Survey and External Examiner reports. Research is supported by the College's central research structures, and the Faculty is represented on the College's active Research Committee.

About the College

Founded in 2012, New College of the Humanities has established itself as a prestigious higher education institution based in the heart of London. After becoming part of Northeastern University's global network in early 2019, the College has undergone a period of rapid growth, having been granted Taught Degree Awarding Powers in February 2020 and moved to a new, state-of-the-art campus in 2021. NCH continues to grow further expanding its student cohort, courses, network and opportunities.

Additional Information

Enquiries

Informal enquiries may be made to Dr Marianna Koli (marianna.koli@nchlondon.ac.uk). However, all applications must be made in accordance with the application process specified.

Application Process

Applications should be made via this link by 20:00 on 30 September 2022. Please reference your application "ECONIB322".

Please ensure that your application includes a CV and dossier (alternatively, an equivalent cover letter) that sets out concisely and in ways relevant to this role: (a) what your priorities would be in performing the advertised role; (b) what your objectives are for your future career; (c) a statement of your approach to education. You may use bullet points if you wish. You can consult our academic job description here.

Participation in the equal opportunities section is encouraged, but voluntary. Applications are welcome from all sections of the community and will be judged on merit alone. We welcome applications from underrepresented groups. Candidates must be able to demonstrate their eligibility to work in the UK in accordance with the Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act 2006. The College can potentially provide sponsorship for this role.

Person Specification Criteria

Qualifications

- PhD completed, or near completion (all but dissertation), or equivalent professional experience, in a relevant area.

Key Criteria

- Demonstrates, through evidence, excellent ability so as to be adaptable, innovative, and inclusive in the role as advertised with regards to teaching, research, and service
- Willingness and ability to undertake world-leading collaborative, impact-focused projects, and large external research bids, involving colleagues across a range of disciplines as well as external partners.
- Flexibility and capacity to teach across a wide range of courses, where appropriate in collaboration with specialists from other disciplines including Marketing and relevant areas of Economics.
- Ability to develop excellent educational provision in areas with significant appeal to students, including at postgraduate level.
- Willingness and capacity to undertake continuous professional development in relation to the use of technology, software, and data in relation to Business, and to teach on these matters.
- Ability to engage and develop working relationships with external partners and with colleagues across diverse disciplines in NCH at Northeastern and across the NU Network.

- Willingness and capacity to exercise appropriate leadership in the development of Business, and to do so through collaboration with a range of disciplines.