The New College of the Humanities wishes to appoint a Multimedia Design Specialist to be responsible for the creation of innovative educational media content. We are looking for someone who can produce graphics, animations and other digital assets to enhance our online courses. This position requires a high level of cross-functional collaboration, teamwork, and excellent communication. In addition to having strong typographic and visualisation skills, the role holder will need to apply project management skills to manage medium to large scale content development projects. The role holder should be a creative problem solver, strong team player and be willing to work in a fast-paced environment. Ideal candidates will have broad experience in multimedia development across multiple modalities and formats, as well as a desire and willingness to learn new skills. The role is suitable for remote working, provided the appointee is able to attend the London campus for face-to-face work when required.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Working closely with Learning Experience Designers, Video Producers and Faculty, responsible for conceptualising, designing, and developing engaging educational content including:
 - Digital Graphics
 - Motion Graphics
 - Animations
 - Screencast Tutorials
 - Podcasts
- Responsible for ensuring build is scalable – anticipating the re-use of effects, animations, and styles
- Creation of visuals and interactive graphics that translate instructional concepts
- Generate, storyboard, and present clear ideas that meet project objectives and comply with brand and product guidelines, upholding Northeastern University's values of inclusive excellence
- Ensure implementation of user-centred design principles, inclusive-design, and compliance with relevant disability/accessibility regulations such as the Americans with Disabilities Act Standards for Accessible Design (ADA) and the latest Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG),
- Active in the management of medium to large scale content development projects
- Stakeholder management – establishing and maintaining good working relationships with internal and external contacts, ensuring their engagement and adherence to required response times
- Ensure feedback from team members and clients are reviewed and evaluated and work to find the best ways to address concerns and provide improvements and new solutions
- Any other duties commensurate with the level of responsibility of this post, for which the post holder has the necessary experience and/or training
